Dear Nadia,

Thank you very much for your donation to needy Iraqi Christians who suffered in the massacre. We have contacts with the Iraqi Churches and we have been and will be working very closely with them. All the aid we distribute in Iraq (and the neighbouring countries) is channelled through church officials known to us personally for their honesty to prevent any fraudulent use of the money.

As for the victims who have been flown to Paris, two of our trustees will be visiting them (on their own account) to see at first hand and assess their needs.

Once your donation is received from PayPal, an acknowledgment will be sent to you.

Again thank you and God bless.

Best Regards
Janan Allos
